In a sever was the understanding upon which the affairs of Europe since the peace of 1815, have been conducted more entirely cast to the winds, for Portugal is left but to hold her arms and record her protest against the violence to which she has been forced to submit. For Europe there remains the precedent frangih with danger.

The Times thinks that one most lamentable result of the affair is that France can no longer be counted upon as among those nations who are bent upon discouraging in every manner the continuance of the slave trade.

The Daily News declares Portugal entitled to the sympathy of all civilized Powers, and that the censure of Europe will deservedly fall on France.

4. The exemples of the vibration of the string.

However good a string may be, it will produce no base until it witerases, and the owner the observed the tone. To vibrate evenly, the aring about here better the tone. To vibrate evenly, the aring about here better the tone. To vibrate evenly, the aring about here to the unit side (see diagram H.) and the first motion of the string is to recode from the hammer. In the H. D. & Co., plane the accound motion of the string is to return in a straight direct line to instarting peint, and then, if it tibrates a thousand times, its motion is up, down—up, down—originates.

The record motion of the string is all other makes cannot be to return in a direct line, for the following reason. To hend an article of any substance forms an elease or aspect and the object of the top of the string in the string for the string and the string for colors of the string the two sides are attack by the hammer, and the string forced up, instead all is returning in a direct line, it deviates from its grapher course by being perceptibly drawn towards the outside, or eighest side of the sangle or eilbow, and its movement to the starting for colors of the sangle or eilbow, and its movement to take, or eighest side of the sangle or eilbow, and its movement to the where or course colors dide, it receives a these, trong, leaning the line which is another cause of the unaversess of tone of the old kind of place.
